Practical information

Getting there

- The shrine is in central Karbala, a short walk from the shrine of Imam Hussain (as) along Bayn al-Haramayn. Many visitors walk between the two.

Nearby

- The shrine of Imam Hussain (as) stands at the other end of Bayn al-Haramayn.

Etiquette

- Dress modestly, move quietly, and give space to people who are praying.
- Be considerate with photography, and follow any instructions given by shrine staff.

Security and facilities

- Security checks operate around the shrines. Follow the instructions of shrine staff and security personnel and any posted signs, use the designated entrances and allow extra time during busy periods.

- Facilities such as toilets, shoe storage, drinking water and step-free routes differ from site to site and between entrances. We have not verified them for each location, so please ask shrine staff on arrival.
- Accessible routes and facilities can vary by entrance and by crowd arrangements on the day. Ask shrine staff for assistance on arrival.

Before entering

Recommended devotional acts

These acts are described in devotional sources as recommended (mustahabb). They are not obligatory.

RELIGIOUS BELIEF

Performing ghusl (ritual bathing) for ziyarat before visiting.

RELIGIOUS BELIEF

Approaching with humility, and reciting the words asking permission to enter (idhn al-dukhul) before going in.

RELIGIOUS BELIEF

Reciting the ziyarat of al-Abbas (as) and offering a two-unit prayer of ziyarat.

Religious obligations

Ziyarat does not suspend everyday obligations such as daily prayers and modesty. The specific rulings depend on the scholar (marja') you follow, so check their published guidance for questions such as prayer for travellers.

Venue rules

Security checks operate around the shrines. Rules on entrances, bags, phones and clothing are set by the shrine administration and can change. Follow the instructions of shrine staff and security personnel, use the designated entrances and allow extra time during busy periods.

General etiquette

Dress modestly and move quietly. Give way to people who are praying, elderly visitors and families. Be careful with photography, especially of other visitors.

Devotional texts

Not printed in this pack: Ziyarat of al-Abbas (as). The online guide at <https://ziyaratguide.com/shrines/al-abbas-shrine> links to where you can read it.
